Hey! Hey! We're the Monkees!

Now after you light the fuse . . .

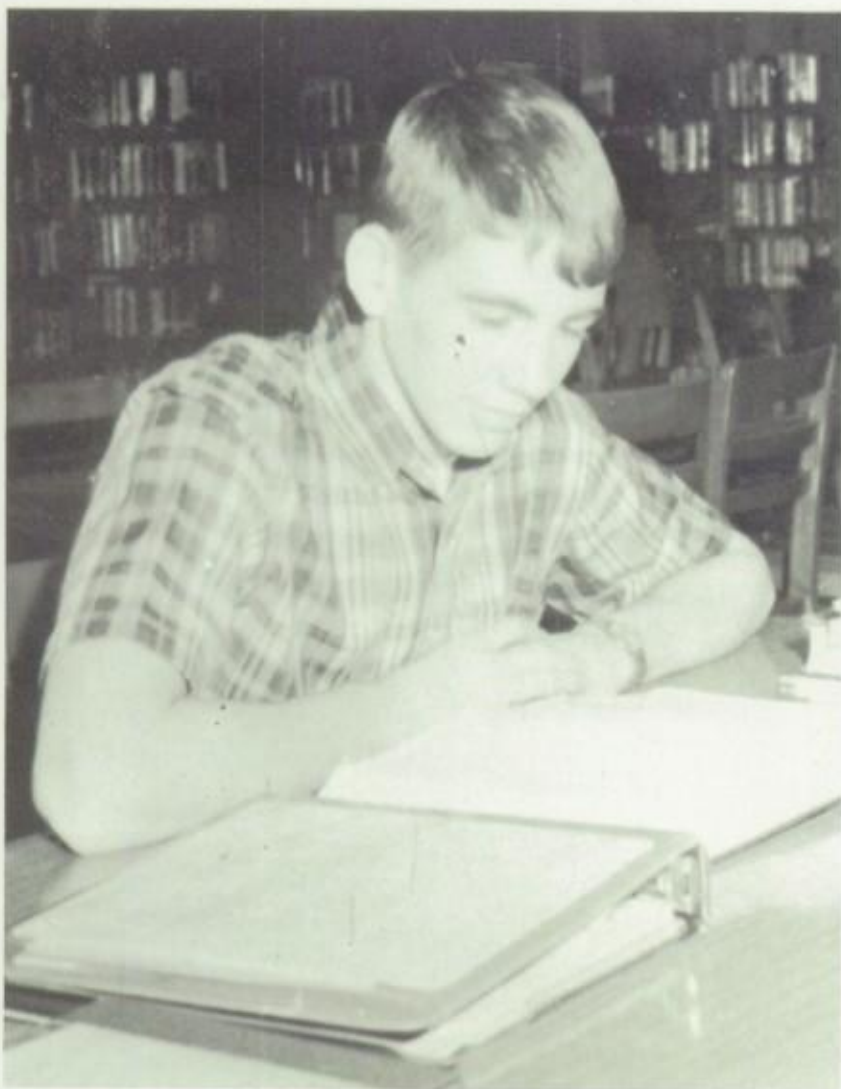

The Southwood Shuffle

Yeh! This must be the place.

Greg studying?

It is the first day of school for the year '66-'67. Everyone feels a certain amount of excitement. This will be the first year at Southwood for many students and a few of the faculty members. The first week new and old Knights and Ladies will try to get into the swing of things. There are many new people to meet and also old friends with whom to reunite. Of course, much excitement is shared among the students for developing the best school spirit yet.

Just where do you think you're going?

George Burgues, a senior at Southwood, is living with Brian Kizer, a junior at Southwood.

George and Nurettin Cakan of Turkey with Mrs. Worth Spurgeon who tutored them in phonetics.

A.F.S.

Dear Southwood Friends,

When you are reading this yearbook the first time I am probably back home in Argentina again and one of the most colorful and worthwhile years of my life is over. I was very fortunate to get to spend it here at Southwood. I think that I have learned many things about United States and I also hope that you have learned a little about Argentina. I want to thank all of you, teachers and students, for making my stay over here such a wonderful experience, and I hope that I will see you again.

The Spirits of S.H.S.

Just five girls, but they led the school throughout the year. They boost the schools spirit by doing clever skits at pep sessions and by being the best and most enthusiastic cheerleaders at Southwood.

You know I didn't volunteer for this!

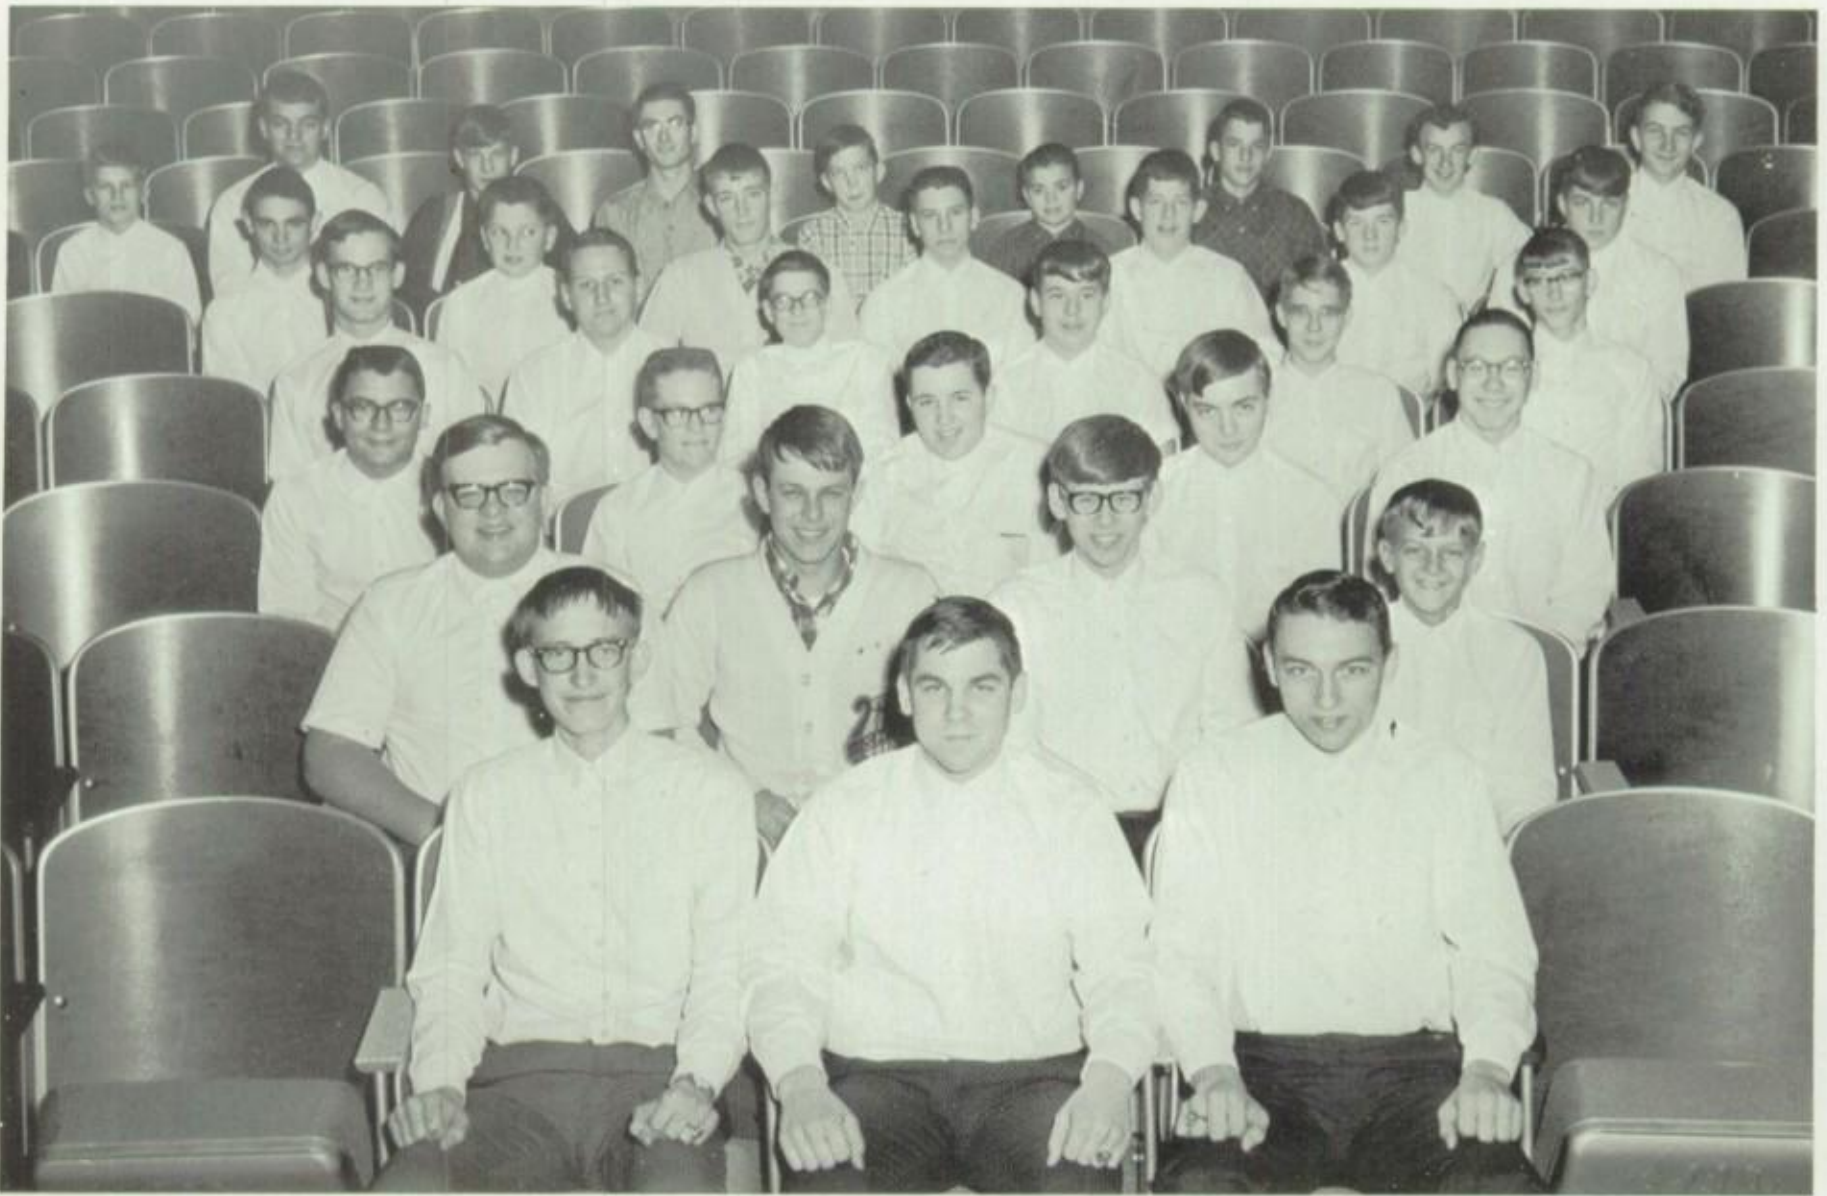

Cheerleaders need rest, too!

Posing for a statue, girls?

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders are learning and ready to take over varsity in the years to come. Proven worthy of their jobs they will make excellent cheerleaders if they decide to continue their career.

Homecoming Highlights

Days of campaigning finally came to a close as Queen Diane Mendenhall and court were chosen to reign supreme over HOMECOMING HIGHLIGHTS. Princesses Sheila and Mary Ann made-up Diane's royal court, adding to the beauty and pageantry of the half-time parade and semi-formal homecoming dance. Skits were used to introduce the queen candidates; before this step, homecoming posters lined the Southwood halls in an effort to win votes for the different contestants. Illuminating a Friday night sky, the annual bonfire roared bright and warm as usual, adding just another touch of splendor to a perfect event.

Queen Diane Mendenhall flashes the smile that won the crown. Below, Sheila Hendricks and Mary Ann Hebel exhibit the same beautiful qualities.

Before the great blaze.

Music Students

Small but loud, we're the junior high band of Southwood. We've had a growing year practicing, learning, practicing, learning, practicing with band director, Mr. Corle, so look out high school here we come.

We're in the Army now

Did you hear what happened at the malt shop?

Maybe, if we concentrate enough.

I wonder if this is where I come in.

Where did this music come from?

High School Concert Choir

Seventh Grade Chorus

Ready to walk right into place as our future high school choir; these lively ones are singing their way through junior high.

Guidance Group Growing

MR. ROBERT E. DAWES A.B. Manchester College, M.A. Ball State University. Director of Guidance and Counseling National Honor Society Advisor, American Field Service School Coordinator

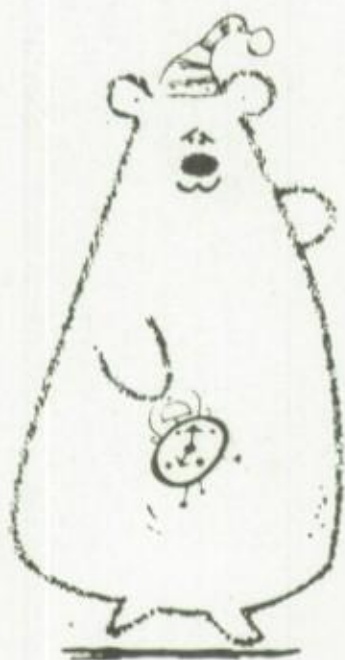

The guidance office is the center of activity and traffic jams. Although it is a small room it is a very vital part of our school. Mr. Dawes and Mrs. Emrick do a remarkable job helping the students through the problems of planning their schedules for now and the future.

You think I don't know the answer, don't you.

This is the only way to study.

Watch the birdie, not the girls.

Are you sure we're in the right class?

You know I don't do this often.
